Rome, July 6, N. S.

THE Pope, being desirous to encourage the Introduction of Commerce in the Ecclesiastical State, has caused an Edict to be published, by which he grants the Exemption of all Duties upon Wool- len, Silks, and Linnen Manufactures, that are introduced into the said State; as likewise the Exemption of Duties on the Exportation of them Abroad.

Florence, July 9, N. S. The Duke de Richelieu, General and Commander of the French Troops at Genoa, is shortly expected here, from whence he proposes to proceed for Rome and Naples. The Hon. Capt. Hervey, who some Time ago commanded his Britannick Majesty's Ship the Princessa, and who now commands the Phoenix, has been presented by Count Richecourt, in the Name of the Emperor, with a fine Gold Shuff Box set with Diamonds and Emeralds, in Consideration of the great Service he did, in towing out of the Mole of Leghorn, the Merchant-ship which had accidentally taken Fire there. By the latest Accounts from the Austrian Army, twenty-six Battalions remained at the Line, from Brüg- nato to the Biscia; and the rest of the Troops, for Want of Subsistence, were retired to the Milanese and the Lodofan. General Brown has now fixed his Head Quarters at Lodi.

Liege, July 23, N. S. Marshal Saxe set out last Saturday from Brussels for Compeigne; 45 Squadrons of Dragoons are actually marching from the Low Countries to the Pais Meffine and the three Bishopricks.

Hague, July 26, N. S. The States of Hol- land met last Wednesday according to their Ad- journment, and resumed the Consideration of the Plan for authorizing the Magistrates to levy, provisionally, the Quotas that each District is to furnish, in Lieu of the Taxes which have been lately suppress'd. They have now confirm'd their Resolution of last Saturday; and as it is apprehended that the Magistrates of some of the Towns, such as Haerlem and Leyden, will not be able to obey the Orders of the States in the Collection of their Quotas, Commissioners are to be appointed in order to assist the Magistrates of those Towns in the Execution of their Office. The States of Guelderland separated a few Days ago; but before they broke up, they resolv'd to continue the Imposts and Farmers upon the old Footing, promising however, at the same Time, to give the People all possible Satisfaction as to the Grievances complain'd of: But the Mob was not to be satisfied with this Declaration; they still persist in demanding to be exempted from all Manner of Taxes, and have assembled in a tumultuous Manner in several Parts of the Pro- vince, where they have committed great Disorders. There has been also of late some Disturbances in North Holland, on Account of the Tythes; from which the Country People thought they were likewise to be freed; but upon the Ad- vancement of some Regular Troops, every Thing seems to be pretty quiet there again. Ge- neral d'Aylva is appointed by the Prince of Orange to put in Execution the Plan relating to the Incorporation of 30 of the Regiments that are Prisoners of War in France.
